Dear Mr. Cooke:

Thank you for your letter of June 30 and the attached brochure describing the work of your organization. The number of distinguished private citizens and public officials who have become associated with International Christian Leadership is a testimony to the substance and worth of your work. Dear Mr. Dulles:

That is why I am giving three months of my time and effort to International Christian Leadership. That is why "Red" Hotley, Ford Mason, Bill Jones, Congressman Walter Judd and many, many others publicly back ICL, as you will see in the enclosed booklet.

Many have said, "Let me know what I can do". All right, I am now letting you know! ICL is in urgent need of additional funds to conduct this lay ministry on a sound, non-deficit basis. The opportunities and challenges it faces today are unparalleled in history.

You can do what I am doing. Not only am I giving three months' time, which is worth something, but my wife and I have invested $350 so far this year in cold, hard cash. Perhaps you can't invest as much or you can do better than I can do. Whichever is the case, now's the time to do it! Use the enclosed subscription card and return it with your substantial cash or pledged investment to assure the continuance and expansion of this most important work.

Believe me - this is one investment you'll ³never regret.

With warm regards,

Roy F. Cooke
Controller & Treasurer

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Dulles:

The IO Division has been informed by a Congregational minister who was formerly an aide to President Eisenhower, that ICL, Inc. is a reputable, if rather Rotarian, organization of prominent public officials and private businessmen who believe that public prayer is an effective means of vanquishing the world's evils, and both Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy have attended prayer breakfasts sponsored by this organization.
